Assisting the Chancellor 43

The Convocation ceremonies may be heard on the FM-assisted Listening System, Channel #26. A limited number of receivers are available at each ceremony.

The Convocation ceremony (the calling together of the academic assembly) has its roots in university traditions of medieval Europe.

The Mace

The mace is a staff symbolizing authority. In the days of knighthood, it was a weapon, but after the 16th century it became solely a symbol of authority carried by a distinguished member of an assembly. It is used on ceremonial occasions to signify the right of an individual or institution to perform a certain function—in the case of universities, to grant degrees.

At Convocation, the mace is carried ahead of the Chancellor as he enters and leaves each ceremony. (Marshal of Convocation H.H.J. Nesbitt has performed this function for all but one of the University's Convocations.) During the ceremony the mace is displayed on a special stand as an embodiment of the authority of the University.

Carleton's mace was presented to the University in 1976 as a gift from the Chair of the Board of Governors at that time, Mr. Hyman Soloway. It is a silver-plated staff approximately three feet long. At the upper end there is a bowl marked with the University's original crest and the University motto in both Latin and English—"Opera Nobis Aeterna" and "Ours the Task Eternal." From the upper portion of the bowl rises a phoenix. Traditional oak leaves surround the lower end of the staff.

Coat of Arms

The coat of arms was presented to the University by His Excellency The Right Honourable Ramon John Hnatyshyn, Governor General of Canada, on November 15, 1992 as part of Carleton's 50th anniversary celebrations. It is described in heraldic terms as follows: "Sable a maple leaf Gules irradiated and charged with an open book Argent; And for a Crest: on a wreath Argent Sable and Gules a Phoenix Gules quilled and beaked Or issuing from flames proper; And for a Motto: Ours the Task Eternal; And for Supporters: on a grassy mount on either side a raven Sable beaked and membered or armed Gules."

The open book on the maple leaf signifies that Carleton University is in the nation's capital and that learning is open to all who wish to partake of it. The phoenix, the legendary eternal bird, symbolizes the renewing of learning from older foundations, in recognition of Henry Marshall Tory's role in the founding of the University when he was 82 years old. "Ours the Task Eternal" is taken from a Walt Whitman poem entitled "Pioneers" and ties in with the eternal quality of the phoenix.

And so, the Carleton University coat of arms symbolizes sound learning, good citizenship, and the highest hopes of humanity.

The Diploma

The diploma the graduates receive at Convocation is the certificate of qualification which publishes the fact that the student has fulfilled all the requirements and completed the prescribed course of study for the degree. As the senior academic legislative body of the University, it is the Senate which has determined whether the requirements have been met. The signatures of both the Chancellor and the President of the University appear on the diploma: the Chancellor because of his role in conferring the degree, and the President who, as Chair of Senate, certifies that Senate has enacted the required motion to award the degree. The Seal of the University is affixed to the diploma as a mark of authentication.

Academic Dress

The academic dress of Carleton University results from a compromise between that found in the ancient foundations of Britain and Canada and the American Intercollegiate Code. All three hoods—bachelor's, master's, and doctoral —are of the simple or Oxford shape. The bachelor's hood is made of black stuff; the master's and doctoral are made of black silk and all are lined with silver silk with two chevrons, one of red and one of black. From bachelor's to doctoral, the hoods are progressively longer and opened to show more and more of the lining.

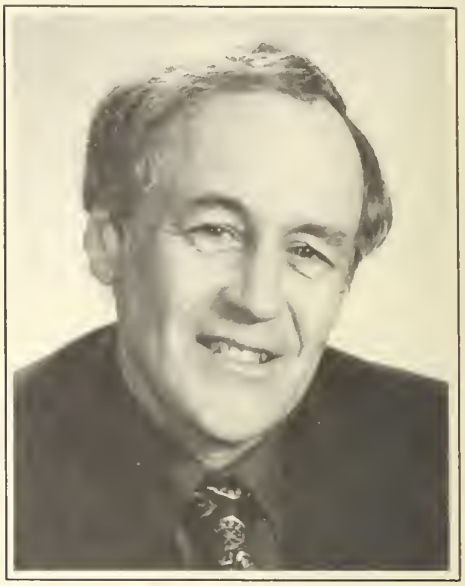
The velvet border of the hoods denotes the degrees granted according to the following colour combinations: architecture is cerise; arts is white; commerce is camel brown; computer science is royal blue; engineering is orange; industrial design is dark cardinal; journalism is white with a black cord sewn slightly in from the lower border; management studies is camel brown with a black cord sewn slightly in from the lower border; music is venetian pink; public administration is peacock blue; science is golden yellow; social work is cream; and doctor of philosophy is purple.

The bachelor's gown, to be worn with the above hoods, is of full length, made of black stuff, with a gathered yoke behind, and long open-fronted sleeves. The master's gown is of full style, made of black silk or rayon, with a full gathered yoke behind, and closed sleeves with an opening at the elbows. The doctoral gown is of the same style as the master's, but made of fine royal blue cloth with facings of light blue silk.

The two shades of blue in the doctoral gown are those of the United Nations, and are meant to recognize the University's long-standing interest, from its earliest years, in international affairs and issues. The colours were chosen when the University awarded its first honorary degree, in 1954, to the second Secretary General of the United Nations, the late Dag Hammarskjöld. The tradition of awarding honorary degrees to Secretaries General of the United Nations has continued since that time.

The gown of the Honorary Doctor of Laws, Literature, Science, Engineering, Architecture, or Fine Arts is a full robe with bell-shaped sleeves. It is made of fine royal blue cloth with facings and sleeves in light blue silk. The hood is made of the same material as the gown, has the same lining as that for the degrees by examination, and is bordered with dark mauve for the degree of Doctor of Laws; vibrant blue for the degree of Doctor of Literature; red for the degree of Doctor of Science; orange for the degree of Doctor of Engineering; cerise for the degree of Doctor of Architecture; and dark cardinal for the degree of Doctor of Fine Arts.

Richard J. Van Loon, B.Sc., M.A., Ph.D.



Richard J. Van Loon was born in Ottawa, Ontario in 1940. He was educated at Carleton University where he graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in Chemistry in 1961 and a Master of Arts degree in Political Science in 1965. In 1968, he received a doctorate in Political Studies from Queen's University.

Dr. Van Loon's academic career began in 1968 when he became an Assistant Professor of Political Studies at Queen's University. In 1970, he returned to Carleton University as Assistant Professor of Political Science. Dr. Van Loon was promoted to Associate Professor in 1972. He remained with the Department of Political Science until 1976 when he joined Carleton's School of Public Administration. After a period in government, he returned to academic life; this time to the University of Ottawa, first as Professor and Co-ordinator of Public Policy and Management Programs (1982-1984), and then as Professor and Director of Health Administration Programs (1985-1986). Together with Professor Michael Whittington of the Department of Political Science at Carleton, he is author of The Canadian Political System (1971). This widely used Canadian government textbook has just been re-issued in its fifth edition as Canadian Government and Politics.

In addition to his academic career, Dr. Van Loon has had a distinguished career with the Public Service of Canada: National Health and Welfare (1974-1976, 1978-1979); Treasury Board (1978); Ministry of State for Social Development (1980-1982); and the Department of Indian Affairs and Northern Development (1986-1994), where he rose to the rank of Associate Deputy Minister. Prior to his appointment at Carleton University, Dr. Van Loon was Associate Deputy Minister, Health Canada, for two years.

While in government, Dr. Van Loon played a significant role in the Macdonald Royal Commission on the Economic Union and Development Prospects for Canada where he was Co-ordinator for Social and Labour Market Policies. He was also instrumental in the development and implementation of the Treaty and Comprehensive Land Claims policy for First Nations and Inuit communities, and in the creation of the new northern territory of Nunavut. A long-time advocate of the Canadian medicare system, he helped develop the Canadian Health Act and, more recently, guided the evolution of federal health strategy.

Dr. Richard Van Loon is the first Carleton University graduate and first native Ottawan to become the University's President and Vice-Chancellor. He took office on August 1, 1996 for a six-year term.

Ivan Leigh Head, O.C., Q.C., B.A., LL.B., LL.M., LL.D.

Ivan Leigh Head, Professor of Law and Chair in South-North Studies, University of British Columbia, will be awarded the degree of Doctor of Laws, honoris causa, at the afternoon ceremony on Sunday, November 17, "in recognition of a distinguished contribution to Canada as a legal scholar and constitutionalist, and a governmental adviser in international relations who has exemplified a profound understanding of, and concern for, the human condition within its global context."

Ivan Head was born in Calgary, Alberta. He received a Bachelor of Arts degree in 1951 and a Bachelor of Law degree in 1952 from the University of Alberta. In 1960 he obtained a Master of Laws degree from Harvard University.

Dr. Head was called to the Bar of Alberta in 1953. He practised law in Calgary from 1953 to 1959. In 1960, he qualified as a Foreign Service Officer in the Department of External Affairs, serving in Ottawa and in Southeast Asia. In 1963 he was appointed Associate Professor of Law at the University of Alberta and, in 1967, promoted to full Professor. He acted as Associate Counsel, Constitution to the Federal Minister of Justice from 1967 to 1968.

From 1968 to 1978, Dr. Head served as Special Assistant to the Prime Minister of Canada, for the greater part of that time with special responsibility for foreign policy and the conduct of international relations. In that role, he advised Prime Minister Pierre Elliott Trudeau in his Commonwealth and foreign activities, acted as the Prime Minister's special representative in a number of missions abroad, and served on Canadian delegations to a wide number of international conferences. Dr. Head joined the faculty of the University of British Columbia following three terms as President of the International Development Research Centre (IDRC) in the period 1978-1991.

Dr. Head has carried out research on various aspects of international law, has served as an executive member of several professional bodies, and is the author of a number of monographs and books on subjects of legal scholarship as well as foreign and developmental policy. His most recent book, co-authored with Pierre Trudeau, is entitled The Canadian Way: Shaping Canada's Foreign Policy, 1968-1984 and was published in 1995. He has served as a member of the Board of Trustees of the International Food Policy Research Institute and as a Commissioner of the Independent Commission on International Humanitarian Issues. He is currently a member of the Executive Committee of the Inter-American Dialogue, and an executive member of the Society for International Development in Rome. He is the recipient of a number of honours from foreign governments and international bodies.

Honorary Doctor of Laws degrees have been conferred upon Ivan Head by nine universities in Canada and abroad: University of Alberta (1987); University of West Indies (1987); University of Western Ontario (1988); University of Ottawa (1988); University of Calgary (1989); Beijing Forestry University (1990); St. Francis Xavier University (1990); University of Manitoba (1991); and the University of Notre Dame (1991). He became a Federal Queen's Counsel in 1974. Dr. Head was named an Officer of the Order of Canada in 1990.
